Notification Regarding New Member Code of Ethics Orientation Requirement

Effective January 1, 2001, the following requirement was added to the Association's bylaws in accordance with requirements of the National Association of REALTORS®:

SECTION 4. New Member Code of Ethics Orientation. Applicants for REALTOR® membership shall complete an orientation program on the Code of Ethics of not less than two hours and thirty minutes of instructional time. This requirement does not apply to applicants for REALTOR® membership who have completed comparable orientation in another association, provided that REALTOR® membership has been continuous, or that any break in membership is for one year or less.

Failure to satisfy this requirement within 25 days of the date of application will result in denial of the membership application.

The Code of Ethics orientation program referred to above is available as a continuing education program on videotape two times each month at the Association's offices. The class schedule will be provided with your confirmation letter.
