

Opening the Door
to Your Success

Notification of SFARMLS Orientation Requirement

All MLS Participants are required to attend an orientation program. The program is designed to thoroughly familiarize participants with the service's rules, regulations and compliance, SFARMLS access and general information on the services available.

301 Grove Street
San Francisco
CA 94102

P: 415.431.8500
F: 415.553.3968

If you are unwilling to attend an orientation program, you must assume the full responsibility for complying with the service's practices and procedures in the absence of attending such a program. You also must waive any claim that you may have, now or in the future, against the Association, its officers and directors, relating in any way to the Association's failure to fully advise or inform you of the service's practices or procedures.

Failure to satisfy this requirement within 30 days of the date of application will result in the suspension of services.

The Orientation program referred to above is available once each month at the Association's offices. An orientation schedule will be provided with your confirmation letter.

Signature

Date